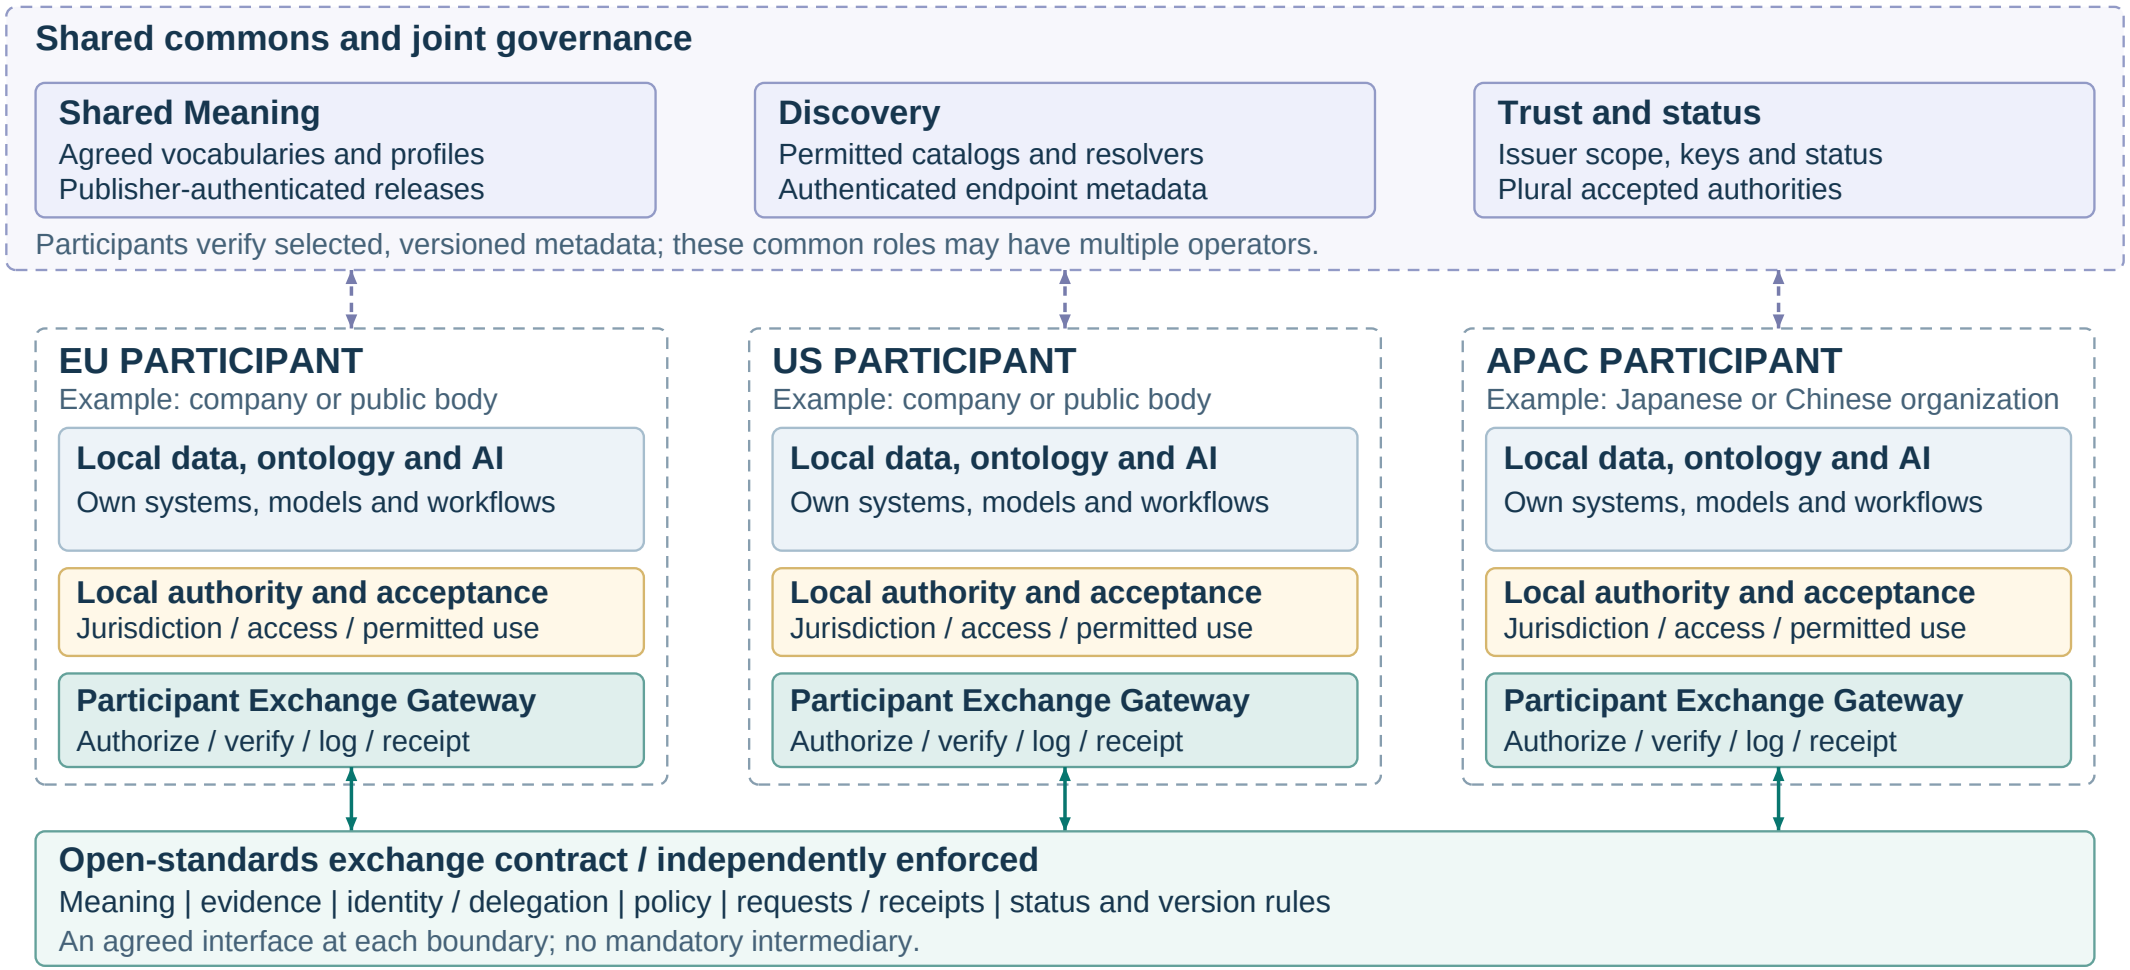
Proposed global cooperation through interoperable contracts

Europe scales leadership through partnership; participating organizations retain authority over local decisions.



Arrows denote scoped requests and responses; each receiver checks permission and acceptance.
Proposed architecture: no automatic mutual recognition, unrestricted data sharing or single global trust root.
Illustrative equal roles, not one model per region. Operational guarantees require implementation and testing.